DEDICATION

To Mr. Paul Mikler, our "Coach," who has dedicated his service to youth in this community . . .

who has guided us through the years with his friendly and sympathetic advice and unselfish leadership . . .

who has, throughout our high school days, coached a great team, respected for its sportsmanship . . .

who has been Senior Class sponsor and guided them in producing a beautiful annual . . .

we dedicate this annual as a small token of our appreciation for his untiring efforts in our behalf. We shall fondly treasure our memories of him.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

"There is no gain but at a price . . . "

As we come to the end of another school year it would be well for us all to consider this statement. If we have other years in school, it can serve as a guide for encouraging us to work harder. If we are graduating, it can be used as the first rung on the ladder of success.

Since success in school and in life will always be measured by the price which we are willing to pay, we should consider carefully the goal which we are setting for ourselves and then meticulously pay the price which will be exacted.

PROPHECY

Oviedo, Florida
June 6, 1977

Dear Coach,

You may be surprised to hear from me after twenty years, but after our class reunion last week, I thought you might be interested in hearing what the members of your "best" graduating class have done for themselves.

When I arrived at the party, the first people I saw were Peggy Fleming and Kay Estes. They are both teachers at Oviedo's newest elementary school. (There are three now, you know.)

The next people I met were Donnie Malcolm and Norman Nicks--just as close friends as they ever were. Donnie is the owner and manager of the world's largest meat market, built in Goldenrod a few years ago. Norman, Florida's most famous insurance broker, also owns the largest used car lot in Miami and the surrounding territory.

Luther Duda was there with his wife, Melanie, and all the little Dudas. Luther has excelled in the field of science and won a Pulitzer Prize for his poem, "Ode to a Basketball."

One of Oviedo's busiest barbers, Ronald King, was there. He specializes in all the cat haircuts and has renewed the teen-age fad of "flattops," "D.A.'s," and sideburns.

Dr. Elena Tuhy from the University of Florida came with one of her many beaux. It's amazing how she still looks so young.

I didn't recognize Glenn Lee who is now head of the Department of Agriculture. He has gained so much weight and talks so much that he doesn't seem the same ole Glenn we knew.

Mrs. Ray Fore (we knew her as Dawn Walker) was just radiant. She's superbly happy just being a wife and mother. They are living in the suburbs of that great metropolis, Chuluota, Florida.

Of course Dan Beistel was there. He never misses a social affair. Dan is now the head pharmacist of one of Oviedo's largest drug stores.

You would have been surprised to see Lt. Col. Ferdinand S. Duda of the U.S. Army. He has changed in so many ways. He has just returned from overseas duty in Germany and will next serve a period in the Pentagon.

One of America's ten best-dressed men was there. It was none other than our own Mr. William Lane, who has followed his love of the land. He has one of the largest and most profitable farms in the state.

You remember Betty Stevenson? She married Freddie Wheaton right after graduation. Well, she is now the private secretary of the top executive in Orlando's guided missile plant.

As you know, Raymond Mikler has followed in your footsteps and has become Oviedo's Coach Mikler. He certainly seems to be living up to the name.

Gordon Horton owns a chain of filling stations throughout the South. He can now relax in his ultra-modern house near Oviedo and let the other boys do the work.

You'll never guess who the editor of the OVIEDO TRIBUNE is. Betty Beasley! She worked from the bottom up and is now top "man!"

Marvin Wrye was there in all his glory in a black tux with tapered trousers that fit smoothly into the top of his white suede boots. He wore a white silk cowboy shirt and a white suede ten-gallon hat. He really lives up to his title "Cattle King of America."

You haven't forgotten that great basketball player, Tom Brown, have you? Tom helped win the Olympics for us last year and is now playing pro basketball. We certainly are proud of him.

We were sorry that George Triplett could not be present. He sent his apologies from Brazil where he is doing wonderful work winning souls for Christ.

As for myself, I am head librarian of the new public library in Orlando.

I shall have to close now, but please answer soon. They will let you write from Chattahooche, won't they?

Affectionately yours,

Jinx M. McCall

Mrs. Jinx M. McCall

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Dan Beistel, do will my curly hair to Coach Mikler, my appreciation of hunting and fishing to Roy Weisenbarger, and my boisterous ways to that quiet and dignified sophomore, Ann Lundy.

I, Betty Beasley, do will my shorthand ability to Shirley Partin, my art of cutting stencils for programs to anyone who will so volunteer, and my love of physical education and geometry to Janet George.

I, Tom Brown, do will and bequeath my ability to scratch my head to Mr. Blankenship, my flattop to Coach Mikler, and ability to gain weight to H. R. Spencer.

I, Luther Duda, do bestow upon Robert Mikler my title, "Most Athletic," my ability to drive my father's big car to Pete Ulrey, and my flair for writing to Andy Duda.

I, Kay Estes, do bequeath to Joanne Oliver my ability to get tickled about everything, my height to Tyra Kelsey, and my Junior Chemistry set to Jimmy "Brookie" Brookshire so that he can advance his knowledge.

I, Ferdinand Duda, do will my ability to get out of work to my brother, Joseph, and my slight build to Virgil "Fatso" Wilson.

I, Gordon Horton, do leave a part of my ability to talk louder than anyone else in English class to William Hart, my puny physique to that giant, Mike Tyre, and do unwillingly will my cave man knowledge of onehand driving to Roy Weisenbarger, who never takes his mind off school.

I, Peggy Fleming, do will and bequeath my ability to play the piano to Melanie Jackson, my aspirin, icebag, and strait jacket to the next editor of the annual, and my jitterbugging ability to Junie and Bessie in the hope that they won't let our good name down.

I, Ronald King, do will my D.A. to Johnny Mogus, my Arthur Murray technique on the dance floor to Benne Wainwright, and my loud, harsh voice to that quiet Junior, Pete Ulrey.

I, Billy Lane, do will and bequeath my string of admirers to Jim Hill, who never has a date, my short, stocky build to that lean and lanky freshman, John Hollar and my loud, outspoken nature to William Hart.

I, Glenn "Charles Atlas" Lee, do bequeath without any hesitation my rippling muscles to Carl Fabry, thirty pounds of my surplus weight to H. R. Spencer, and my ability never to catch a fish to Joe Battle, who breaks all records.

I, Jinx Miller, do will and bequeath my ability to excel in all sports to my sister, Linda, my love of 'Rock 'n' Roll to Mary Ann Tesinsky, and my ability to get a boyfriend with a Big Buick (and the privilege of driving it) to Ann DeShazo or any other lucky girl who might have such a talent.

I, Donnie Malcolm, do leave to Joe Battle my supply of language which will enable him to talk more and say less than any other human being, my position in the draftdodgers to William Hart, my ability to argue on anything anytime with anyone (especially Coach and Mr. Blankenship) to Andy Duda, and my untrained voice to John Perry.

I, Elena Tuhy, do will my ability to eat anything I wish and still stay slim to my sister, Pris, my underclassmen boyfriends to Mary Ann Slayton, my reckless driving to Carl Fabry, and my bottle of Light and BRIGHT, guaranteed to give the darkest hair golden tints, to Ann DeShazo.

I, Raymond Mikler, do bequeath my intellectual remarks and views about all subjects to Benne Wainwright, my public speaking ability to Mary Ann Tesinsky, who never speaks, and all my energy and pep to that lazy freshman, Junie Fleming.

I, Norman Nicks, do leave my rattle-trap of a car to Richard Smithson, who gets so tired of driving those Cadillacs, my ability to take two English classes in my senior year under Mrs. Smith and still graduate to Jimmy Mentzer, and to H. R. Spencer, Walter Walker and Ruby Lee Trowell the sum of five cents for the purpose of hiring a taxi to go downtown at lunch time.

I, Betty Stevenson, do will and bequeath my ability as cheerleader to Ann DeShazo, in the hope that she will keep up the good work, my small stature to Mary Ann Slayton, and my ability to go steady to Janet George.

I, Dawn Walker, do will and bequeath my ability to play deck tennis to Pris Tuhy, my ability to speak Spanish to Lois Murphy, and my habit of changing boyfriends twice a week to "true blue" Shirley Partin.

I, George Triplett, do will to Billy Smithson the ability to ease through his senior year because I had such a struggle, my ability to play football to Ormand Simmons, and my attentiveness in library science to Freddie Robbins.

I, Marvin Wrye, just leave; but before I do, I leave my faithfulness in helping keep alive the study of P. L. D. to Charles Boone, my fickleness to Margaret "Elvis" Arndt, and my love to Lois Murphy.

Our girls started the season with a spirit to go all the way victorious. They got off to a good start by defeating Pierson 82-33.

Having such a short schedule this year with intervals between games, and no tournament to compete in, the team seemed to slow up, rather than progress. However, we came through the season with a 4-4 record.

Win or lose, the girls always displayed those most important qualities---good sportsmanship and teamwork.

Kneeling: Raymond Mikler, Marvin Wrye, Jim Hill, Wallace Kelsey, Joseph Duda. Standing: Coach Paul Mikler, Ferdinand Duda, Tom Brown, Carl Fabry, Captain Luther Duda, Mike Duda, Manager Joe Battle.

The 1957 Lions have a respectable 18-2 record as we go to press. After losing to Lyman in the County Christmas holiday tournament, we came back and avenged the defeat with two convincing wins. Our only other defeat was a 63-59 loss to Bishop Moore. We avenged this loss, too, by a narrow 41-40 victory over the powerful Hornets from Orlando.

Prospects for another winning season looked dismal at the beginning of the season. A good team spirit, a willingness to practice, and determination have had much to do with making this one of our better teams. Basketball critics rate us one of the top teams in Central Florida.

The starting five for most of the season have been Luther and Tom at forward, Carl at center, and Mike and Ferdinand at guard. When Jim became eligible for the second semester he worked into the starting lineup.

Ferdinand's great improvement in offense and defense has been one of our brightest spots. Mike's ability to break into the starting lineup has been another factor in our success. Carl is improving his shooting and rebounding with every game. Luther has successfully made the change from guard to forward. Tom has developed into a good rebounder and an accurate shooter. Jim is showing much improvement at the pivot spot. Raymond and Wallace have played well as substitutes. Joseph and Marvin round out the varsity squad.

Our high scores are Carl 321, Ferdinand 295, Tom 196, Luther 169, and Mike 110.

We are looking forward to the group tournament which we hope to win in order to qualify for the state tournament in Gainesville.

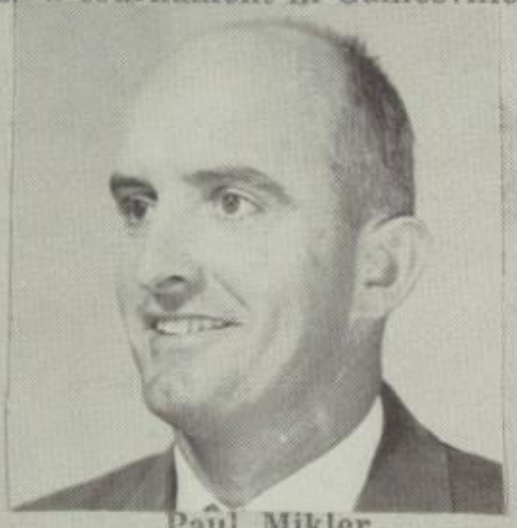
One of the amazing outfits in Central Florida is the do basketball team. Year in and year out the school in nole County—one of the smallest in the mid-state area—ages to come out of its season well ahead of .500 and is gular visitor to the state Class C tournament in Gainesville. Some say that with no ball to contend with, the s have all the time in the d in which to prepare for cage season. That is true art and helps explain the e Oviedo teams show early he season.



Paul Mikler

HOWEVER, that pat explaon leaves out the fine job h Coach Paul Mikler has with his boys through years. This season, for ince, Oviedo started the year with Ray Fore, Keith Malcolm Hubert Priest, all starters from last year, gone through uation. And Jim Hall was ineligible the first six weeks. Boys like Luther Duda, Wallace Kelsey, Carl Fabry, Ferdd Duda and Mike Duda had to take up the slack. Oviedo, ever, went on to win its first four games.

Unbeaten List Trimmed To Four

THE WEEK'S BASKETBALL action took another bite out he list of undefeated teams in Central Florida. Now there only four squads remaining with unblemished records in the and there is reason to suspect that one or more of them go at any time.

Oviedo, Leesburg, Wildwood and Eustis still are unbeaten. tis, however, has won only three contests. St. Cloud and rmont, both of which have lost all of their games, are among tis' victims. The Panthers face Umatilla Friday night and e Weir next Tuesday. And Oviedo takes on tough Bishop re on Tuesday.

The other three are hardly surprises. Oviedo and Leesburg e won six each and Wildwood nine.
